

Map showing the Arakawa River (荒川) and surrounding urban areas in Tokyo, including Maebashi (前橋) and Utsunomiya (宇都宮). The map displays a dense network of roads, rivers, and public transportation lines. A large area in the center, roughly bounded by the Arakawa River to the west and the Tone River (利根川) to the east, is highlighted in yellow and orange. This highlighted area includes the city of Maebashi and extends into the surrounding urban areas. Major transportation routes are clearly marked, including the Keisei Line (京成線), the Seibu Line (西武線), and the Toei Line (都営線). The Arakawa River is shown in blue, flowing from the north to the south. The map also shows various districts and neighborhoods, with labels in Japanese characters. The overall layout is a complex grid of streets and transit lines, with the highlighted area being a central focus.
